SERVE DC*GRANT REVIEW OPPORTUNITYServe DC Seeks Grant Reviewers
for 2007 Learn and Serve America School-Based Funding Competition

Serve DC is seeking individuals to review grant proposals for the 2007 Learn and Serve America funding competition. This is an excellent opportunity to network with colleagues in the national service and education fields, learn more about the grant-making process, develop your own grant-writing skills, learn about exciting initiatives happening in local schools, and contribute your knowledge and experience to Serve DC's efforts to select high-quality service-learning programs for Learn and Serve America funding.

What does a grant reviewer do? Grant reviewers will help to evaluate funding applications for the 2007 Learn and Serve America School-Based grant competition. Reviewers read, score and evaluate proposals, and discuss their findings with a small group of fellow reviewers and a facilitator. The panel then comes to consensus to rank the proposals according to quality and recommend them for the next level of review.

What qualifications should reviewers have? Serve DC is looking for a diverse group of reviewers--males and females of all ages, races and ethnicities--that have experience with national service, education, or community-based programs, and grant writing. Serve DC would like to recruit reviewers experienced with service-learning, education, youth development, or national service. For example, reviewers may be community service practitioners, educators, students, youth participants, national service alumni, people working in foundations, or individuals working on public policy issues.

Reviewers must be comfortable reading a large volume of material in a short period of time and providing analysis in a small group.

Can members currently serving in AmeriCorps or any other streams of service serve as reviewers? No, you must have completed your AmeriCorps service before being selected as a reviewer. Alumni of the AmeriCorps programs are strongly encouraged to apply to serve as reviewers. AmeriCorps members must have completed service by August 1, 2007.

Can people who work for a Corporation for National and Community Service-funded program serve as a reviewer? Yes, people who work for organizations affiliated with other Learn and Serve America, AmeriCorps or national service programs may serve as reviewers. For instance, an individual who works for an organization that hosts a VISTA volunteer may review AmeriCorps applications. However, people cannot serve as a reviewer for the AmeriCorps programs if they work for an organization that is being considered for funding in this competition.

What is the time commitment? Reviewers must be available on November 27, 2007 (5:00pm-6:30pm) and December 4, 2007 (2:30pm-6:00pm; this session may run later depending on the number of applications received). Reviewers will participate in an evening training session on November 27, 2007, and a consensus review session on December 4, 2007. The period between training and consensus session will be dedicated to reviewing and scoring the proposals.

What are the benefits to reviewers? The grant review experience is an excellent opportunity to meet and network with colleagues in the national service and service-learning fields; find out about exciting programming and trends in service-learning and youth programs; develop a deeper understanding of the grant-writing and grant-making processes; and contribute experience to the selection of high-quality programs for the District of Columbia. This is a volunteer opportunity.

How does one apply to become a reviewer? To apply, please forward your resume to: Kristen Henry, Learn and Serve Coordinator, Serve DC, 441 4th Street, Suite 1140N, Washington, DC 20001 or e-mail kristen.henry@dc.gov, 202-727-8003. Please share this announcement with others who are qualified reviewers.

Is there a deadline to apply? We will begin reviewing resumes and contacting potential reviewers as resumes arrive. Please submit resumes as soon as possible, but no later than 5pm on October 12, 2007 for consideration.

What are the next steps after submitting a resume? Serve DC will review resumes and begin contacting qualified applicants. We will check for conflicts of interest and confirm availability at that time.

Thank you for your interest in serving as a reviewer and for sharing this announcement with others who may be interested. This is a very important part of our review process and our efforts to recommend high quality programs for funding.

SUMMARY ORDER

REVIEW BY THE ZONING ADMINISTRATOR

The application was accompanied by a memorandum from the Zoning Administrator certifying the required relief.

The Board provided proper and timely notice of the public hearing on this application by publication in the D.C. Register, and by mail to Advisory Neighborhood Commission (ANC) 2B and to owners of property within 200 feet of the site. The site of this application is located within the jurisdiction of ANC 2B, which is automatically a party to this application. ANC 2B submitted a report in support of the application. The Office of Planning (OP) also submitted a report in support of the application.

As directed by 11 DCMR § 3119.2, the Board has required the Applicant to satisfy the burden of proving the elements that are necessary to establish the case pursuant to § 3104.1, for special exception under section 203. No parties appeared at the public hearing in opposition to this application. Accordingly a decision by the Board to grant this application would not be adverse to any party.

Based upon the record before the Board and having given great weight to the OP and ANC reports, the Board concludes that the Applicant has met the burden of proof, pursuant to 11 DCMR §§ 3104.1, 203.8, 203.10 and 203.4(m), that the requested relief can be granted, being in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the Zoning Regulations and Map. The Board further concludes that granting the requested relief will not tend to affect adversely the use of neighboring property in accordance with the Zoning Regulations and Map. After a discussion at the hearing, the Board and the Applicant agreed that, as it relates to the bed and breakfast use proposed herein, the maximum number of persons on site at one time shall not exceed 14.

Pursuant to 11 DCMR § 3101.6, the Board has determined to waive the requirement of 11 DCMR § 3125.3, that the order of the Board be accompanied by findings of fact and conclusions of law. It is therefore ORDERED that this application be GRANTED.

Application No. 17658 of Michael D. Parry, pursuant to 11 DCMR § 3103.2, for a variance from the story limitations under subsection 2500.4, and a variance from the use provisions to allow the second floor of an accessory structure to be used as an exercise room under subsection 2500.5, in the R-5-B District at premises 1529 S Street, N.W. (Square 191, Lot 15).

DISMISSAL ORDER

REVIEW BY THE ZONING ADMINISTRATOR

The application was accompanied by a memorandum from the Zoning Administrator certifying the required relief.

BACKGROUND

The subject Zoning Administrator reviewed application was filed with the Board of Zoning Adjustment (Board) on April 24, 2007. Pursuant to 11 DCMR 3113.3, notice of the September 18, 2007 public hearing was sent to the Applicant, all owners of property within 200 feet of the subject site, the Advisory Neighborhood Commission (ANC) 2B and the District of Columbia Office of Planning (OP). The Applicant posted placards at the property regarding the application and public hearing and submitted an affidavit to the Board to this effect. The Office of Planning submitted a report in support of the application. Advisory Neighborhood Commission 2B submitted a report in support of the application. No parties appeared at the public hearing in opposition to this application.

The application is a request under 11 DCMR § 3103.2, for two variances. The first variance is from the story limitations under subsection 2500.4, and the second variance is from the use provisions to allow the second floor of an existing accessory structure (carriage house) to be used as an exercise room (second floor) and automobile garage (first floor) under subsection 2500.5.

The Board, after careful consideration of the historical facts and evidence presented in the record of this case, concludes that the above-cited relief is not needed to allow the stated use of the accessory building. First, as to § 2500.5, the provision does not apply in this R-5-B zone, but only in R-1-A and R-1-B zones. Second, there was some confusion as to the extent of the floor creating the second story of the accessory building. It was originally represented to the Board that this floor constituted a "mezzanine," as defined in the Zoning Regulations, which, according to the Regulations, would not constitute a story. If this were the case, the accessory building would be one story in height and the Applicant would need variance relief to change it to two stories. As was demonstrated to the Board's satisfaction at the hearing, however, the second floor is not a mezzanine, but a full second floor, creating, for the purposes of the Zoning Regulations, a second story. This accessory building, having been constructed, apparently with two stories, in the late 1800's, is nonconforming as to height/number of stories. Therefore, no relief is needed by the Applicant to merely modernize it, as no structural alterations are being undertaken. See, 11 DCMR § 2001.2.

The Board found the following with respect to the relief being sought in this application:

1. The accessory structure, as constructed today, constitutes a legal nonconforming structure, to which ordinary repairs, alterations, and modernizations are permitted pursuant to 11 DCMR § 2001.2.
2. No evidence was presented that would suggest the Applicant's intention to expand or increase the degree of nonconformity. Such an increase would include, for example, the addition of new bath or kitchen facilities. Any such modifications would indeed require variance relief.
3. A use variance is not required. The exercise room and automobile garage use of the accessory structure are clearly incidental and subordinate to a modern day dwelling unit. See, 11 DCMR § 199.1, definition of "Use, accessory."

Pursuant to 11 DCMR § 3101.6, the Board has determined to waive the requirement of 11 DCMR § 3125.3, that the order of the Board be accompanied by findings of fact and conclusions of law. It is therefore ORDERED that this application be DISMISSED and as such authorizes the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs to issue a building permit to the Applicant pursuant to Exhibit 9 – Plans.

Board's Motion to Dismiss the Application:

VOTE: 4-0-1 (Ruthanne G. Miller, Curtis L. Etherly, Jr., Marc D. Loud and Anthony J. Hood to approve the motion, and the NCPC representative not present, not voting).
